COMM-EDU FEBRUARY 2023 NEWSLETTER

WHAT IS COMM-EDU ABOUT?

The general objective of Comm-Edu: Community agreements for Education is to promote an innovative approach to school and extracurricular educational offerings on the subject of active and European citizenship, in order to combat educational poverty and early school leaving, based on the creation of educational communities at the local level involving public-private partnerships and the most relevant stakeholders.

The preliminary research of the Comm-Edu project is now online and you can read it clicking on the link below. The aim of this research is to reach a better understanding of the state-of-the-art of the existing good practices on active citizenship education through the involvement of the local community and the ideas, experiences, expectations of students, teachers and local stakeholders in the definition of community-based educational paths for citizenship education. This was possible thanks to each partner's individual research and through Focus Groups with the target audience.

FEBRUARY MEETING

On February 6th and 7th a transnational project meeting and co-design workshop was held in Assisi. It was the first time the partners got a chance to meet in person and it was a great opportunity to discuss the state of the art of the project, dissemination issues as well as a way to meet with stakeholders and start working of the template of the community agreements for education.

OUR NEXT STEPS

So what is next for the project? During the meeting in Assisi the partners agreed on all the actions to implement in the next months, including the final Elaboration of the "Community Agreement" template and they will also start preparing a dissemination event to sign this pacts along with the stakeholders, administration
